Patterns are everywhere. Whether simple or complex, they have beauty and appeal. But they have significance too. Strangely enough, some of the most significant patterns are intangible. During his lifetime, the individual sees many obvious patterns; yet he may overlook the one which is of greatest importance—the pattern of his own life.

Sonia,

It has been wonderful getting to know you better this year. You have been a real credit to B.B.G. Luck in all you do.

FRESHMEN

Every year a large group of girls and boys enters Bexley High School as freshmen. Since the high school routines are entirely new to them, the freshmen follow the examples set by the upperclassmen. At the beginning of the year, the freshmen start to develop the pattern of their high school life. Throughout the year, they become more and more familiar with high school both academically and socially. As a result, next year they will begin to be leaders.

With a great deal of enthusiasm and ingenuity, this year's freshmen class selected the theme, "Let's crown Leo!" for their float in the Homecoming parade and captured first prize. This will certainly be a treasured part of their high school life pattern. May all their later projects be as successful!

SOPHOMORES

Traditionally the sophomores bear evidence of a clearing pattern. With the valuable experiences and knowledge that the freshman year offered them, the sophomores have acquired varied interests and expanded their outlook toward high school life. They have increasingly participated in school athletics and organizations and have shared in many more elements of the high school pattern, both as individuals and as a class.

With exactly two hundred members, the sophomore class is the largest in the school's history. These students have completed one-half of their pattern for high school. However, the biggest and most exciting parts are yet to be added. Every sophomore looks forward to the next year and the Junior-Senior Prom, the climax of a project which they have been working toward for two years.

JUNIORS

To the juniors the pattern of high school has become quite evident. Perhaps the most celebrated feature which they have added to their pattern is the success of the Junior-Senior Prom. For three years they looked forward to this event and worked zealously to earn the necessary funds. Recalling a well-know song title, "In the Good Ole Summertime," they transformed the gym with appropriate decorations for the last prom ever to be held there.

The juniors have become more conscious of the nearness of college, and this awareness has become an added incentive to the completion of a good high school pattern.

SENIORS

At the end of the senior year the pattern of high school life becomes complete. Many experiences have gone into the design of this pattern. Homecoming—the queen and the court, the floats, the game, and the dance—will long be remembered. The exciting athletic events were certainly part of the year. The traditional senior play, "Best Foot Forward," showed the dramatic talents of the seniors. Not only will Bexley remember the seniors for their contributions to the life of the school, but the seniors will remember Bexley for its contributions to their life patterns.

With the events of the four high school years transferred from reality to memory, the graduate is now "in orbit." One pattern has ended and another begins, for the greatest part of life lies ahead.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Self-government affords many students the opportunity to show that rarest of all patterns—leadership. Through participation in Student Council, Student Court, or the school's many clubs, students learn to accept responsibility and begin to develop those qualities which later life will demand of them.

In our high school, student government is more than a mere formality. It is an active, creative undertaking which bridges the gap between the student body and the faculty; it strives to help both in solving school problems.

Sophomores

STUDENT

Student Council is the law-making body of our school. It is made up of forty-one members, including class officers, Student Court, Student Health Council representatives, and the three Student Council officers. Problems pertinent to school life are solved here, and new projects are developed.

Much of the work is done by committees—committees designated as Pep Rally, Publicity, Social, Survey, Project, and Buying. Each committee has a financier who makes purchases. The Survey committee serves as a clearing house for projects which come to the attention of the Council.

Very early in the year, the Council took part in planning the freshman orientation assembly. Then came the Homecoming activities, including the dance, the crowning of the Queen, the parade, the float contest, and revival of the bonfire tradition.

In November the Council planned a Hallowe'en dance at the Jeffrey Mansion in collaboration with the city Recreation Department. Many other achievements may be enumerated here.

As a service project, each home room representative collected canned food and money to be sent to the South Side Settlement at Christmas. Alternates decorated the halls at Christmas time.

COUNCIL

The Council planned and sponsored the New Year's Eve dance at the Jeffrey Mansion.

First steps were taken to inaugurate honor study halls on a limited basis, with the hope of expanding the system in future years. Council also investigated the possibility of revising some sections of the student limitations system.

The Council served as host to the C.B.L. Council meeting, at which Fred Mann was elected vice-president of the C.B.L. Council. Bexley Council also sent delegates to the Ohio Association of Student Councils convention and workshop and to Buckeye Boys' State.

Last, but certainly not least important of Council activities, was its strong backing of the bond issue and school levy. This activity culminated in the staging of a mock election, in which the student body gave an overwhelmingly favorable vote to both issues.

Officers responsible for Council leadership were Fred Shafer, president; Dick Nafzger, vice-president; Jane Baldwin, secretary-treasurer; and Mr. Harold Tipton, advisor.

Student Court

Making the parking lot a safer place and keeping order at the bonfire and pep rally were the main projects of Student Court during the past year. The main purpose of Student Court is to help Student Council enforce the rules and regulations of the school. The Court was handled excellently through the cooperation of each member and with the sound advice of Mr. Harold Tipton, faculty advisor. This year's officers were Bob Babbitt, chief justice; Midge Egnor, secretary; Mike Hardesty, bailiff; and Dave Brandt, Fred Shafer, Sam McCandlish, Sandy Pollock, Sam McGavran, Ron Clowson—justices.

Student Health Council

Judy Kavanaugh, president of this year's Health Council, led the organization in an attempt to better the health conditions of the school. This year the Council made posters for bettering the health habits of the student body and sponsored the Red Cross and United Appeals drives.

Membership of Student Health Council consists of two boys and two girls from each class. These members are elected in their freshman year and serve for four years. Becky Riggs was vice-president and Kathy Kienzle was secretary-treasurer. Miss Margaret Love was the faculty advisor.

Quill and Scroll

Twenty-one new members were initiated into Bexley's honorary journalism society, Quill and Scroll. To be eligible for membership a student must be a member of the TORCH or BEXLEO staff, in the upper third of his class, and have the recommendation of the advisor. Membership in this club recognizes the contribution which a student has made to the success of school publications.

National Thespian Society

Each spring those students who have participated in Bexley's dramatic activities or who have helped behind the scenes are initiated into the National Thespian Society. Started at Bexley in 1955, the organization's purpose is to encourage students who have shown some form of dramatic ability. The new members of 1959 were honored with membership at a banquet April 21 for their parts in the Dramatics Club presentation, Double Doors; the Senior Play, Best Foot Forward; and the operetta, The Fortune Teller.

National Honor Society

Being elected to National Honor Society is a great experience to remember from one's high school years. Only six per cent of the juniors and fifteen per cent of the seniors are eligible. In addition, students are considered on the basis of scholarship, character, leadership, and service.

This year on March 11 more students were inducted into the National Honor Society. There were ten juniors and fourteen seniors to receive the honor.

Following the formal induction, there was a tea in the foyer of the auditorium for all the new members.

Miss Marion Thomas is the sponsor.

Latin Club

Latin Club's Roman Banquet, the annual trek back to ancient Rome, serves to show new Latin students a picture of Roman life. Under the leadership of Jeff Schottenstein, president; Tex Pritchett, vice-president; Judy Bone, secretary, Geoff Stern, treasurer; and Miss Opal Wylie, advisor, Latin Club initiated 22 new members, freshmen who maintained an A average. Latin Club also sponsored a very successful open house, "Rockin Roman Holiday."

This active Bexley organization also participated in the Franklin County Junior Classical League by furnishing some of its most active workers.

French Club

French Club has had quite a successful year. There was a variety of interesting programs consisting of movies, slides, a speaker from France, and the combined meeting with Spanish Club. The highlight of the year was the city-wide French Banquet, at which Bexley had a clever skit based on a night club scene featuring three acts—the Chipmunk Song, La Petite Riddinghood Bleue, and Honey Bun.

French Club was led by President Carol Michaelson, Vice-President Midge Egnor, and Secretary-Treasurer Patsy Belt, with Mr. Ralph Howell as advisor.

Spanish Club

This year the Spanish Club underwent a number of changes. New qualifications for members were among these changes. In order for a first year student to be rushed at the end of the first semester, he must have a B average or better.

Old "stand-bys" were enjoyed this year, as in previous years. The Pinata party, the joint meeting with the French Club, and the City Wide Fiesta rounded out the year.

Officers were Candy Cox, president; Kay Gearhart, vice-president; Gayle Caplan, secretary; and Ronny Roselle, treasurer. The advisor was Mr. L. Smith.

Book Club

At each Book Club meeting seven teams competed in monthly quizzes which proved to be informative as well as enjoyable. At the end of the year, awards were presented to the team with the highest scores in the quizzes, and also to the most outstanding member of the club. Colored leather bookmarks with Bexley stenciled in white was the money-making project of the year. The advisor was Miss Lula Gallogly; and the officers were Sandra Marks, president; Lynne Whetstone, vice president; and Bonnie Woodruff, secretary-treasurer.

Music Club

With the aid of its advisors, Mr. Myers and Mr. Mazarak, the club sponsored a dance with the theme of South Pacific. At Christmas, Music Club, with Y-teens, sponsored Kinder Key Caroling. On April 11, the club helped Mr. Myers and Mr. Mazarak with the Ohio Music Education Association Solo and Ensemble Auditions.

Officers of the club were Janet Wulber, president; Jim Keyes, vice-president; and Jean Wiloughby, secretary-treasurer. Members of the cabinet were Marlene Solomon, publicity; Carol Davis, refreshments; and Mary Scheiderer, Judy Bone, Marlene Blum, and Marcia Ruhling, class representatives.

Future Teachers of America

Under the leadership of Becky Riggs, president; Sandy Zelizer, vice-president; and Mary Orr, secretary-treasurer, Future Teachers of America sponsored a very successful year. Programs which consisted of movies, speakers, and discussions depicted the various phases of teaching. Each member was given a chance to participate in the various F. T. A. functions, the most important being the Annual Teachers' Tea. Among the highlights of the year were a statewide convention, plans for a cadet teaching program, and a visit to the Upper Arlington F. T. A. Miss Maridean Close was the advisor.

Dramatics Club

One of the largest projects of the Dramatics Club this year was the three-act play, "Double Door." After the play the club held an open house for members of the crew, cast, and parents.

At the banquet in April, members were initiated into the National Thespian Society.

Under the supervision of Mrs. Sara Buchanan, the club showed much enthusiasm for all phases of the drama. Serving as officers this year were Linda Woodruff, president; David Parsons, vice-president; Kay Gerhart, secretary; and Bonnie Woodruff, treasurer.

Art Club

The Art Club this year had a very successful program. Through lectures, movies, and a trip to Cincinnati the members found a better appreciation of art.

Under the supervision of Mr. Trivella, Art Club sponsored several projects, including a school dance and the decorations for the annual Halloween Party. The President is Darlene Cohen, and her cabinet consists of Ellen Brooke, vice-president; Terry Thall, secretary; and Kay Gearhart, treasurer.

Hi-Y Club

Our Hi-Y sponsored several projects and took part in activities initiated by the Central Y.M.C.A. Some of these activities were volleyball, bowling, basketball, Kinder Key Christmas program, and a Youth in Government program.

Presiding over this group was Larry Kerr. His officers were Jim Merkle, vice-president; Bill Malloy, secretary; and Bill Rader, treasurer. Serving as advisor was Mr. Joseph Gibboney.

Varsity B

With the capable advice of Mr. Tenwalde, Varsity-B had another fine year. Leading the club were Jerry Doss, president; Rick Thatcher, vice-president; and Brooks Westwater, secretary-treasurer. The principal aim of Varsity-B is to promote good sportsmanship and school spirit. This spirit is encouraged both in our own school and in the wider community of the Central Buckeye League. Membership in Varsity-B is dependent upon winning at least one letter in interscholastic competition.

"Now, Jeff, is that the union or intersection of two sets?" asks Mr. Schacht.

Evening Mathematics Class

Under the guidance of Mr. John Schacht, a special Evening Mathematics Class was established. The purpose of the class was to allow interested boys and girls to study more advanced mathematics, including set theory and symbolic logic, not covered in the regular school curriculum. Much class time was spent in preparing for the annual Mathematics Association of America Test given in March. Membership, although voluntary, was necessarily limited to seniors and juniors.

Science Club

Broadcasting from its radio station was the main project of the Science Club during the past year. Another project was the purchase of a telescope. At a time when technical knowledge is being emphasized, the purpose of this club is to promote scientific interest throughout the school. The officers include Bert Japikse, president; Jeff Papier, vice-president; and Kenny Laudenschach, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Harold Ridenour is the advisor.

Girls' Athletic Club

Evidence of the outstanding interest in girls' sports is the large membership of G.A.C.—286 girls. Under the supervision of Miss Love, the club had a busy schedule of activities. For the Mad Hatter Rushing Party on September 18, the girls created hats representing a favorite sport.

On October 4 G.A.C. was host for a hockey clinic directed by the Dayton Field Hockey Club. Over one hundred girls from Columbus high schools enjoyed excellent instruction in field hockey. The traditional Hockey Night followed by a potluck supper completed the hockey season on November 11.

Harriet Davidorf models for style show

Other club events included a dance after the basketball game January 9 and an exciting Basketball Class Night on March 11.

The fitting climax to the year was the Annual Banquet at Ilonka's. Signs of superstition indicating Banquet No. 13 were everywhere. Following the presentation of the sports awards, the new sports-heads and officers were installed. With words of good luck the retiring officers: President Miriam Dornbirer; Vice-President Bebe Baird; Secretary Bev Greene; Treasurer Judy High; and Intramural Sports Manager Carole Tuthill, concluded the Banquet and the year.

Y-Teens

Growing in the knowledge and love of God and learning the qualities of friendship and loyalty are the main goals of the Y-Teens. To attain these goals the club under the guidance of Mrs. Antoinette Barr and Miss Trola McCurdy sponsored many activities. The first of these events was the customary Can Can Party held on December thirteenth. With the joint efforts of the Y-Teens and Hi-Y members, twenty-three baskets of food were collected for the Settlement House. The next event of the year was the Orphans' Party. Orphans were the guests of the club at a Christmas party. The members thoroughly enjoyed the children and were pleased that the children had so much fun.

Spaghetti dinner

The girls also worked on the Lily Parade and Links, projects which are in the nature of charity.

Many social events were enjoyed by the Y-Teen girls. They had a spaghetti dinner, after which there was a very enjoyable sing. On April 10 the girls sponsored a Sadie Hawkins Dance. It was enjoyed very much by everybody. An overnight and a Mothers' Day tea were also held.

Y-Teen officers were Petie Kurtz, president; Judy Bone, vice-president; Nancy Samson, secretary; and Betsy Addison, treasurer. Judy Kavanaugh served as program chairman and Carol Davis as member-at-large.

SPORTS

Many lessons in teamwork, sportsmanship, and personal integrity can be learned away from the classroom, on the field of sport. These lessons can ultimately shape the patterns of our lives and give them added scope and meaning. For this reason, sports are an integral part of the program at Bexley.

In the midst of all the excitement, it is easy to lose sight of the principal objectives of sports. As in the past, we hope that Bexley shall ever be humble in victory, optimistic in defeat, and honorable in both.

Football

Under head coach Ben Tenwalde, the Blue Lions brought Bexley its finest season in recent years, compiling an eight and one record.

The opening game proved to be a sign of the good things to come as a Bexley squad defeated St. Charles for the first time since 1950, 35 to 8. The next week saw powerful Logan come to town, only to succumb to the deadly passing of Bob Babbitt by the score of 38 to 30. Bexley posted its first two CBL wins the following two weeks at the expense of Delaware and Grandview. The Arlington game, expected to be close, quickly turned into a rout as the Lions defeated their archrival 42 to 0. After defeating Whitehall in the "Fog Bowl," Bexley returned home to host Worthington before an overflow homecoming crowd. Although winning 14 to 8, Bexley's title hopes received a bad blow as Bob Babbitt was lost for the remainder of the season with a broken leg. After downing a stubborn Mt. Vernon team, Bexley met unbeaten Urbana for the championship. In an extremely close game, Bexley lost 14 to 8 and finished the season as CBL runners-up.

Although not winning the championship, Bexley received recognition as seven boys, Rick Thatcher, Co-captain Bill Malloy, Mike Hardesty, Dick Penn, Sam McCandlish, Co-captain Karl Kumler, and Bob Babbitt were named to the All-Central Buckeye League team. In addition, Kumler and Babbitt placed on the All-Central District team, and Babbitt made third team All-State. Bexley can certainly be proud of this year's football team; a team which never gave up and which came through with its greatest efforts when the chips were down.

Basketball

As defending Central Buckeye League champions, Bexley matched its last year's record of 16 and 4, but this time finished second behind Urbana. We may be proud, however, that Urbana's lone defeat in league play was at the hands of Bexley.

Coach Smith's Lions led by Captain Dick Nafzger, featured good scoring balance with Sam McCandlish, Tom Tussing, and Nafzger consistently hitting in double figures. Mike Hardesty and Karl Kumler also contributed many outstanding performances, especially in the rebounding department. Dave Brandt, Jim Haunty, and Sandy Pollock provided the main bench strength and were called upon many times to spell the starters.

After defeating Washington Court House in the season opener, Bexley rolled over its next five opponents before meeting its first stiff competition in Columbus West. A close game all the way, the Lions won it 42 to 40 on Karl Kumler's last second jump shot. After downing Worthington, Bexley suffered its first defeat by losing to Mount Vernon. Bexley won six of its final eight games, losing only to Worthington and to Urbana in the season finale, 49 to 33.

In the Central District Tournament Bexley was seeded third and won its first two games over Cardington and Hilliards, before losing to a stubborn Westerville team 51 to 50.

For his excellent play all season long, Dick Nafzger repeated as All-Central Buckeye League guard. Next year's captain, Sam McCandlish, was honored on the All C.B.L. second team.

The reserves, coached by Dana Swinehart, finished their season with 9 and 8 record. Coach Smith can look forward to many fine prospects including freshman Ron Clowson and sophomores Frank Eiferman, Steve DeVoe, Jerry Mechling, Steve Tuckerman, and Larry Ritter.

Just because Bexley did not win the championship does not mean that they did not play like champions. While some teams displayed bad sportsmanship, the Bexley boys kept their heads and were a credit to both the school and the community.

Swimming

Coach Russ Owen's swimming team enjoyed another fine season, finishing with a 5 and 3 record.

Led by Co-captains Jack South and Boyd Crall, Bexley finished third in both the City Relays and the district meet. Many fine individual performances were turned in by South, Crall, Stan and George McCloy, and Jon and Tom Olander. Tom Olander, a new student this year, broke the existing school records in the 150-yard individual medley and the butterfly.

Wrestling

Bexley's wrestling team, much improved with a year's experience, posted a 4 and 8 record. Wrestling, still a relatively new sport at Bexley, came into its own this year, attracting increased student interest.

Under the able leadership of Coach Ben Tenwalde and Captain Ronnie Polster, Bexley bettered last year's record despite the loss of many lettermen through graduation. At the Winter Sports Banquet, Schomaker was named next year's captain and Wes Rosenthal the Most Valuable Wrestler.

Track

Back to improve upon last season's second place finish are eleven lettermen, including Co-Captains Mike Hardesty and Larry Kerr. Coached by Russell Owen and Harold "Hal" Ridenour, the Lion trackmen have set their sights on defending champion Worthington and the Central Buckeye League crown. Despite the loss of Wendell Kessler, Jerry Hockman, and Scott Burns due to graduation, Bexley's chances of accomplishing this goal are excellent.

Much of the squad's strength is centered around the high jump, broad jump, the middle distances, and pole vault. The pole vault is especially strong this year with Dick Nafzger, who placed eighth in the state meet last spring, returning. Great things are also predicted for Tom Tussing in the 880-yard run. Other consistent scorers are expected to be Kerr, Hardesty, Kumler, Offenberg, and Ackley.

Baseball

With six starters back from last year's C.B.L. runners-up, Bexley's baseball hopes are high. Returning are Dave Brandt, Wes Rosenthal, Alan Blue, Ronnie Erkes, Sam McCandlish, and Captain Bob Babbitt. Bob is expected to see only limited action because of a football injury. Coach Clarence "Pete" Nonnemacher, now in his second season at Bexley, can also expect solid performances from Bob Newell, Andy Holstein, and Ron Culbertson.

Early season games have indicated some defensive weaknesses and lack of pitching depth, but these things can be ironed out as the year progresses. The opening game against Aquinas was highlighted by Dave Brandt's four hits, including a grand-slam home run, and Alan Blue's sparkling one-hit shutout.

Bexley and Grandview are expected to give defending champion Mount Vernon a hard time, with Upper Arlington as a possible dark horse. Practice and hard work will tell the story.

Golf

Bexley's golf team, coached by Carlton Smith, is relatively new this year, with Captain Jim Merkel being the only returning letterman. After winning the C.B.L. crown last year, Bexley's golfers have their hopes set high again for a repeat performance. The remaining three positions will be filled from among Steve DeVoe, Jim Keyes, Peter Blue, and Dave Sansbury. The highlight of this season was the team's southern tour of several famous golf courses during the spring vacation.

Tennis

Hopes are high for winning the C.B.L. tennis crown this year—and with good reason. Six of last year's lettermen are returning to action this spring. This team, which hopes to win the first C.B.L. championship for Coach Joseph Gibboney, is composed of Captain Jerry Doss, Andy Tsitouris, Stan Myers, Bob Swedlow, Fred Abel, and Jack South. The remaining position will be filled by Jerry Topy or Richard Dick.

GIRLS'

SPORTS

Four years of physical education are required for all girls. Other than regular class work, every girl is given the opportunity to participate in any of the seventeen intramural sports between individuals, homerooms, and classes. For more highly skilled girls, the girls' athletic program offers interscholastic sports, as well as intramural. Tennis, golf, hockey, and basketball constitute the interscholastic or varsity sports that are offered.

Return by Jill Edmonds and Norma Kahn

The intramural tennis sportsheads, Jill Edmonds and Norma Kahn, organized a Round Robin tournament which was played in the fall. With the spring came the selection of members for a varsity team, which competed with the teams of other high schools.

While the tennis team toiled on the courts, the girls selected for the varsity golf team practiced on the green. Since only a few high school girls play a good game of golf, G.A.C. offered an instruction course at the Columbus Country Club for those who were interested. Amy Blue and Darianne Dick were in charge of the golf program.

For fun, excitement and enthusiasm our hockey program cannot be equalled. On November 11 Hockey Night climaxed the season. The juniors emerged the victors, downing the seniors 2 to 1.

Displaying the qualities of a championship team, the interscholastic squad enjoyed a near perfect season. This successful team downed all but one of its opponents. A single tie game with Worthington marred the record. To celebrate an exceptional season, the team had a spaghetti dinner.

ARTS

Students talented in the creative arts are given many opportunities to develop their potential at Bexley.

The music department offers training in voice and instrument for those who tend toward this form of expression. Our publications provide training and practical experience for those with journalistic skills. Year after year, the BEXLEO and the TORCH achieve recognition for their outstanding quality. Boys and girls interested in drama are given their chance to shine in Dramatics Club presentations and the Senior Play. No matter which one, the arts expand the scope of an individual's pattern and enrich his life.

CHOIR

Led by Mr. Myers, the choir is one of the most active groups in the school. Its programs are many and varied.

This year the singing group gave many outstanding performances. Early in the fall, the parents of choir members were treated to a rehearsal given by the choir. At the holiday times the choir was especially busy, singing at the Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter assemblies. The cold weather of December did not prevent the choir from signing its Christmas Concert at many places, including the elementary schools, the Bexley Women's Club, and Capital University. Christ Lutheran and Brookwood Presbyterian Churches invited the choir to sing at one of their Lenten Services. The choir was honored to do this. Certainly the choir's biggest effort this year was the presentation of the operetta, "The Fortune Teller."

Members of the choir will long remember Mr. Myers and the appreciation of music he gave them.

Choir officers were Joan Williams, president; Patty Lutzy, secretary; and Carol Davis, social chairman.

CONCERT

Gay music and exciting marching routines by the band added much to our football games. The band began to practice for the marching season about a week before the school year began. Under the direction of Mr. John Mazarak, this year's marching band was one of Bexley's finest.

After the football season ended, the band demonstrated its versatility by changing to a concert band. This change required a complete change in technique. With the choir, the band participated in the annual Christmas concert, and also played for the tree lighting ceremony at the Circle. On April 3 the band gave a very enjoyable spring concert in the auditorium. When the State Music Concert was held at Bexley, band members participated and also helped Mr. Mazarak by being runners and typists for the judges. Later in April the band had the privilege of giving a concert at Capital University.

In May the band presented, with the choir, a spring concert in the auditorium. May also brought the annual band awards banquet held at the Seuecca Hotel. After dinner, awards were bestowed on deserving members and the rest of the evening band members had a wonderful time dancing.

The band finished a very active and successful year when it played at graduation. To Mr. Mazarak goes much gratitude for the help he gave band members this year.

Torch

Another pattern has been established. The light from the Torch has been unusually brilliant this year.

Each issue has reflected the pulse of the student body right down to the latest gripe, the most current bits of humor, the newest happenings "Between Bells", and the most recent sports heroes.

Among the projects of the Torch for financial support of the publication was the usual Dial-a-Date, Bexley High School's version of the telephone directory—including the "yellow pages." Dial-a-Date received unexpected publicity in the New York Times. Editor Mary Orr was instrumental in bringing additional prestige to the Torch by virtue of her article on Dial-a-Date when it appeared in the Ohio State Journal and was broadcast over the Associated Press wires. Another Torch-sponsored fund raising project was a Valentine's dance. But as if to prove that not all of their thoughts ran in mercenary channels, Torch staff members also sponsored the Athlete of the Year Award.

For each issue the Editor has extracted from each staff member his fair contribution; and the paper has achieved balance and dignity through the understanding, patience, and helpful guidance of Mrs. Sara Amos, the faculty advisor.

Bexleo

With five medalist ratings from the Columbia Scholastic Press Association preceding us, the staff was eager to produce another superior yearbook. Staff meetings were held last spring in which ideas for the theme were suggested and discussed.

Actual work began on the first day of school and continued until the final press deadline. One advantage this year's staff had was the camera purchased with funds left by the 1958 staff. It proved a great help in eliminating tight picture schedules. One of the highlights of the year was the annual tax stamp drive held in March. The drive was a great success, netting much more than the most optimistic staffer would have predicted.

The members of the staff are John Willson, Editor; Judy Wood, Associate Editor; Rick Thatcher, Business Manager; Miriam Dornbirer, Literary Editor; Jerry Doss, Advertising Manager; Lynn Schomaker, Art Editor; and Genie Stein, Carol Michaelson, Jeff Schottenstein, Nancy Strickler, Judy Jones, Dave Parsons, Steve Comer, Jule Durschnitt, Jean Willoughby, Midge Egnor, and Renee Zelizer, Assistant Editors.

We would like to express our deepest appreciation to Mr. Ralph Howell, our faculty advisor and firm friend. Without his infinite patience and effort, our book would not have been the success it is.
